THE Public throughout Honolulu may not know that the premises recently occupied by W. E. Herrick, at No. 116 Fort Street, opposite the Pantheon Stables, is now known as the

"City Shoeing Shop."

This new Establishment, will be a source of gratification to our community, inasmuch as cruel and torturous shoeing has heretofore been to largely practiced on man's noblest animal by so called Horse-shoers.
Edward Doyle, the well known experienced and skillful Horse Shoer, is manager of this shop, which is a recommendation in itself, and with the practical assistance of Andrew Brown, the floorman, our citizens may fully rely on their merits as master mechanics.
It would well repay our citizens to visit and examine Soaking Stalls and Foot Tubs arranged and built expressly for operating on wounded and disabled horses, which no other shop in this Kingdom has adopted.
